A CAREFUL SELECTION of the MOST POPULAR BALLADS.

I NEVER HAVE LOVED THEE.

By W. C. PETERS.

Price 25 cents.

"I never have loved thee; yet, strange though it be,
So soft are the feelings I cherish for thee,
That the wildest of passions could never impart
More joy to my soul or more bliss to my heart;
They come o'er my breast—my happiest hours;
They come like the south wind that ruffles the flowers—
A thrilling of softness, a thrilling of bliss;
Say, is there no name for a passion like this?"

I LOVE THEE FONDLY, DEAREST.

Words and music by S. S. WAGGENER.

25 cents.

"I love thee fondly, dearest,
What e'er thou thinkest of me;
Thou art still to me the nearest,
Though changed thy heart may be."

The music of this song is easy and quite pretty. We would recommend it to those wishing a good but not difficult ballad.

MY SOUL IS FULL OF MUSIC.

Duet, by A. D. FILLMORE.

Price 25 cents.

One of Fillmore's best compositions. It is of moderate difficulty, and well worth the learning.

I LIVE, LOVE, BUT FOR THEE.

The words of this charming ballad are by Mrs. SARAH T. BOLTON; the music by G. B. DOWNIE. 25 cents.

"If I were the light of the brightest star
That burns in the zenith now,
I would tumble down from my home afar
To kiss thy radiant brow.
If I were the breath of a fragrant flower,
With a viewless wing, and free,
I would steal away from the fairest bower,
And live, love! yes, live, love, but for thee."

An easy and pretty song, with a flowing accompaniment. The melody is beautiful, and within the reach of all.

I'M WEARY OF BEING IN LOVE.

By E. THOMAS.

Price 25 cents.

"O! why do you bother me, Kate,
With your smiles and good humor so shy?
With your songs and your innocent prate,
And that eloquent glance of your eye?"

A sprightly little ballad, wedded to words of an appealing character. We cheerfully recommend it.

HAD I NEVER, NEVER KNOWN THEE.

By WILLIAM CUMMING.

Price 25 cents.

"Had I never, never known thee,
Then my heart had been my own," etc.

A delightful little parlor song, written in this favorite author's best style.

O! CARRY ME HOME TO DIE.

Song and chorus. By SOLAN NOURSE.

25 cents.

O! carry me back to my childhood's home,
Where the ocean surges roar;
Where its billows dash on a rock-bound shore,
And moon for evermore.
I'm pining away in a stranger's land,
Beneath a stranger's eye;
O! carry me back to my childhood's home,
O! carry me home to die."

This little song can not fail to please. Both words and music are good. The music is quite simple.

I HAD A DREAM JUST NOW, MOTHER.

By SOLAN NOURSE.

Price 25 cents.

"I had a dream just now, mother;
I dreamt an angel came
And hovered round my bedside, mother,
And sweetly spoke my name."

The music to this pretty little song is well adapted to the words. It is quite easy, and sure to please.

LONE ROCK BY THE SEA.

A reply to "ROCK BESIDE THE SEA." The words of this charming song were written by Miss ADA KERNAN; the music by G. W. SCOTT. Price 25 cents.

THE OLD VETERAN.

By NELSON KNEASS.

Price 25 cents.

A beautiful ballad, by the author of "BEN BOLT."

NATILIE, THE MAID OF THE MILL.*

By W. C. PETERS.

Price 35 cents.

"Down the hill as cheerily
Beside the mill we row,
Where the echoes merrily
Their playful chorus throw;
To the pretty Natilie
A passing draught we fill;
Sweetly sings she there,
Where tie, tac, tie, tac, goes the mill."

This favorite song has a beautifully illustrated title-page.

MY PARENT, DEAR.

By W. V. WALLACE.

Price 25 cents.

"Thou fondest knot in nature's tie,
To me a link of nameless strength;
Thy loss hath caused me many a sigh,
And makes time seem of boundless length."

Wallace, always good, loses none of his reputation by this song. It is deservedly popular.

ALSO, BY THE SAME AUTHOR,

BRIGHT STAR OF LOVE, SHINE ON!*

Words by W. W. FOSDICK; Music by Maritana. 50 cts.

This beautiful serenade is handsomely embellished with a colored lithographic title-page.
